Christ, the absolute witness, who conquered death, ruler of all kingdoms, who loves us immensely and released us from the bonds of sin. He has made us royalty, and priests to his Father. To Him belongs all glory and dominion at all times. Revelation 1:5-6

We like to hear great bible promises. In the process, we like to cherry-pick. We delight in the knowledge so much that we occasionally lose sight of the application. But every promise has a purpose: It is exclusively about Him, the Lord of lords, the King of kings. "You are chosen as a royal priesthood, holy, to him for ihs own possession, that you make known the excellency of him that hath transformed you out of darkness into his light [1 Peter 2:9] – What do we do with these facts?

Yes, it is true, I have given you authority to tread on serpents and scorpions and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing will be able to harm you. [Luke 10:19] – What does this look like practically? – As many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are [male and female] sons of God. [Romans 8:14] As many as accepted the rule of the King of kings, to them he gave authority to become inheritors of his kingdom by adoption - to those who believe in the authority of his name. [John 1:12]
