We like to talk about „worthy and called,“ but we often don't know what we're talking about. We are too much influenced by denominational teaching concepts and our own ideas. What we think about it is often far from what it is actually about. The real concept is much bigger: „As the vastness of the universe is greater than that of the earth, so God's thoughts are greater about your calling. [according to Isa. 55:9]

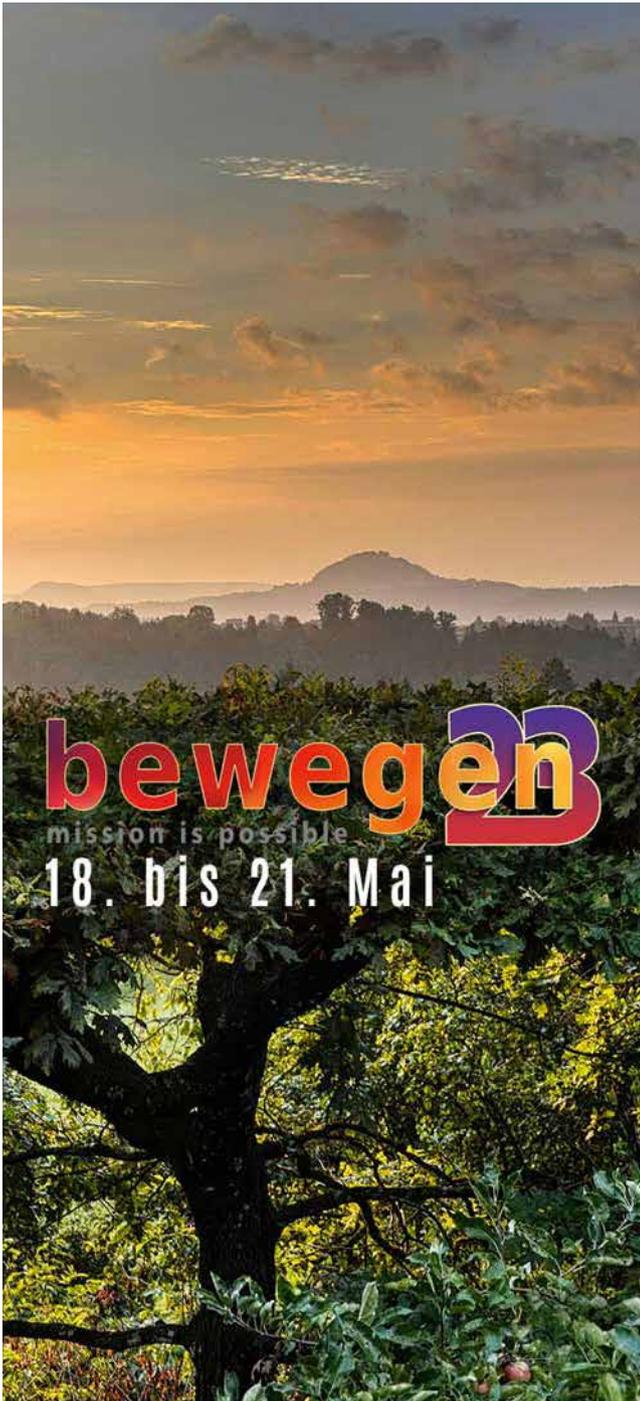

Live „worthy“ of that calling with which you were called before the creation of the universe! [Eph. 4:1; 1:4.]

Worthy is also a word we usually misunderstand. „Thou, Thou, that Thou must be worthy of me!“

But „worthy“ simply means to be in balance. The word comes from „balance.“

Being in balance with what God prepared for you before He took care of such small things as a universe. On one side of the scale is God's plan for you and on the other side is you, just you. Worthy is when that is in balance. God has done everything so that this can be in balance. Make yourself available for that!

His concept is that you are a Son; a full counterpart that reflects His presence so much that it dwarfs everything else. We are His creation, created for supernatural works, which He also created before the foundation of the world, that they might come forth from us today. [Eph 2:10]

Do you sense something of the dimension involved here?

This is really quite OTHER than what we can see with our usual religious ways. This ceiling has to go. It really has to become OTHER.

The Greek word for OTHER is hagios, it is usually translated as holy. „Be holy, for I am holy,“ or even „Be different, for I too am different.“ [1 Pet. 1:16.]

Be not conformed to this world, but be different! [Rom. 12:2]

After these days in May, we will all be distinctly OTHER.
